

JUSTIN MATTHEW JACKSON

DJ
ENTREPRENEUR
WRITER...

..and Bay Area native, Justin Matthew Jackson, has studied television writing, improv and sketch comedy at Upright Citizens Brigade (UCB), The Second City and Script Anatomy. He likes to tell stories about identity and figuring out one's place in the world that are usually secretly heartfelt and full of weird millennial humor. Justin was also a semi-finalist for the Tribe Writers' Program founded by HBO Executive Producer Amy Aniobi.

As a DJ, 'J. Jaxx' progressively became one of the Bay Area's most prominent names with an ambiguous style and versatility in all genres including House, Disco, Funk, Hip-Hop and R&B. It's J. Jaxx's willingness to take risk with sound that has led him to transcend from small venues around the city, to major clubs across the country playing alongside world renowned DJ's and artists alike. Remaining one step ahead with a trusted ear for what's next - J. Jaxx paired his experience, craftsmanship, and hospitality, to execute his own event entitled Les Play House. A rare experience dedicated to the sounds of House, Disco, and Funk. Debuting to a sold out show in San Francisco, J. Jaxx quickly recognized its demand and expanded beyond its hometown by taking the show across the country.

Whether on stage or behind the scenes, it's the attention to detail that will continue to translate into every project Justin attaches himself to.
